

Please ensure all footwear, outdoor gear and hunting equipment is thoroughly cleaned prior to travel, as this will help avoid any trouble with New Zealand biosecurity.

ESSENTIALS

- Hiking/walking shoes with good ankle support
- Head torch + batteries
- Sleeping bag (preferably 4 seasons)
- Sunglasses + hat
- One wool/fleece beanie
- One pair of warm gloves
- Toiletries
- One towel

CLOTHING AND FOOTWEAR

- Four pairs of woolen socks
- Four pairs of underwear
- One gore-tex/waterproof jacket
- One warm down/insulated jacket
- Two warm wool or fleece tops
- One pair of warm pants
- One pair of lightweight/breathable pants
- One pair of shorts
- Two lightweight/breathable tops (for warmer weather)
- Casual clothing and footwear for travel

OPTIONAL

- Camera
- Hiking poles/sticks
- Reading material

TRAVEL DOCUMENTS

- Passport, itinerary, airline ticket, NZeTA Visa ($12 NZD) and IVL Visa ($35 NZD) Apply online at www.immigrations.govt.nz/nzeta
- USD cash for tips/gratuities. We are unable to process tips through the business, so please come prepared if you plan to tip.
- NZD cash.
- Driver's license if you plan to hire a car in New Zealand.
- Converter for cell phone charger, camera, laptop etc. Please keep in mind that the standard voltage in New Zealand (230 V) is higher than in the USA (120 V). You cannot use larger electronics such as hairdryers or straighteners etc. without a voltage converter.
- USB drive to take your photos and videos home (32GB minimum and must be compatible with Mac)

CLIMATE GUIDE

Below is a basic climate guide for the South Island of New Zealand.

- Summer (December - February) - The average daytime temperature is 22 - 30°C (72 - 86°F)
- Autumn/Fall (March - May) - The average daytime temperature is 18 - 20°C (65 - 68°F)
- Winter (June - August) - The average daytime temperature is 12 - 15°C (54 - 59°F)
- Spring (September - November) - The average daytime temperature is 17 - 20°C (63 - 68°F)

This equipment checklist is for a four-day hunt. Please ensure you pack additional underwear and socks etc. for lengthier trips. Do NOT overpack. If you have any questions regarding equipment or clothing, please do not hesitate to contact Mike or Maddie.